MISSION OF OUR PARISH
We are a Roman Catholic parish encompassing St Peter's Church, Our Lady of the Rosary Church (Seton Shrine) and St Joseph's Chapel. We are the first Catholic parish in New York State but our legacy in Lower Manhattan predates the American Revolution. The parish has served as a safe haven in the past for the needy immigrants and victims and rescue personnel in the wake of 9/11. St Elizabeth Ann Seton and Venerable Pierre Toussaint performed works of charity in the parish that inspire us to serve area residents and multitudes visiting from around the world.

FR. DOMINIC'S FAREWELL NOTE TO THE PARISH

Dear Parishioners of St. Peter's Church, St. Joseph's Chapel and Our Lady of the Rosary,

As I leave this community, I would like to extend to all of you my heartfelt gratitude for welcoming and accepting me into your lives.

You made my service to you as a priest a joy, a humbling and learning experience, and leave me with a memory I shall never forget.

I want to thank each and every one of you for your generous spirit, your generous contributions totaling $1,200 to my foundation (Hope for Education Ghana) and your generosity to myself personally. I am blessed.

I will keep all of you in my prayers always and ask God to bless you, as I also ask you to keep me in your prayers.

Peace and thank you dear friends.
Fr. Dominic "

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Our Religious Education Program is still looking for catechists for the next school year starting in September. If you want to volunteer, share your faith and your knowledge of religious history with children from 1st to 8th grade and help them prepare for the Sacrament of First Communion, please consider giving a couple of hours of your time every month!

Please contact Maiwenn Jaffres with any inquiry at reled.spcolr@gmail.com

ELEVATOR CONSTRUCTION ANNOUNCEMENT

Due to elevator construction in the church vestibule of St. Peter's, the Confessional has been temporarily relocated to the right of the Altar.

HOW THE NUNS OF NEW YORK TAMED THE GANGS OF NEW YORK

A special exhibit at Our Lady of the Rosary Church tells the compelling story of how, in the late 1800's, the Sisters of Charity prevailed over growing violence in the destitute Irish immigrant neighborhoods of Lower Manhattan.

The exhibit will run until August 31.
For exhibit hours, visit spcolr.org.

GATEWAY TO LIFE

Jesus doesn't answer the question put to Him in this Sunday's Gospel. It profits us nothing to speculate on how many will be saved. What we need to know is what He tells us today—how to enter into salvation and how urgent it is to strive now, before the Master closes the door.

Jesus is "the narrow gate," the only way of salvation, the path by which all must travel to enter the kingdom of the Father (see John 14:6).

In Jesus, God has come—as He promises in this week's First Reading - to gather nations of every language, to reveal to them His glory.

Eating and drinking with them, teaching in their streets, Jesus in the Gospel is slowly making His way to Jerusalem. There, Isaiah's vision will be fulfilled: On the holy mountain He will be lifted up (see John 3:14), will draw to Himself brethren from among all the nations - to worship in the heavenly Jerusalem, to glorify Him for His kindness, as we sing in Sunday's Psalm.

In God's plan, the kingdom was proclaimed first to the Israelites and last to the Gentiles (see Romans 1:16; Acts 3:25-26), who in the Church have come from the earth's four corners to make up the new people of God (see Isaiah 43:5-6; Psalm 107:2-3).

Many however will lose their place at the heavenly table, Jesus warns. Refusing to accept His narrow way they will weaken, render themselves unknown to the Father (see Isaiah 63:15-16).

We don't want to be numbered among those of drooping hands and weak knees (see Isaiah 35:3). So we must strive for that narrow gate, a way of hardship and suffering - the way of the beloved Son.

As this week's Epistle reminds us, by our trials we know we are truly God's sons and daughters. We are being disciplined by our afflictions, strengthened to walk that straight and narrow path—that we may enter the gate, take our place at the banquet of the righteous.

Growing with the GOSPEL

Sharing the Gospel
Heaven will be wonderful. People from all over the world will be there to enjoy God's friendship. No matter how small you feel now, you will always be important to God in heaven. Once you accept the gift of love from Jesus, you will want to change your life. You will want to spend time with God, and you will want to show love to other people. Then you can look forward to heaven.

Prayer
Dear God, help me to do all that I can to grow closer to you.

Mission for the Week
Pray to God with your family, and ask God to change your hearts so that you love him more than anything else.
