MISSION OF OUR PARISH

We are a Roman Catholic parish encompassing St Peter's Church, Our Lady of the Rosary Church (Seton Shrine) and St Joseph's Chapel. We are the first Catholic parish in New York State but our legacy in Lower Manhattan predates the American Revolution. The parish has served as a safe haven in the past for the needy immigrants and victims and rescue personnel in the wake of 9/11. St Elizabeth Ann Seton and Venerable Pierre Toussaint performed works of charity in the parish that inspire us to serve area residents and multitudes visiting from around the world.

MARY MAGDALENE FEAST DAY JULY 22

Mary Magdalene was known as the "Apostle to the Apostles". She is a witness to the crucifixion and remained at the cross until the body of Jesus was taken down and laid in a tomb. In the early dawn when the Sabbath was over, Mary and other women went to the tomb with spices to anoint the body, which was customary. They found the tomb empty. She is honored as the first witness of the resurrection of Jesus, and received a special commission from Him to tell the other

Apostles of his resurrection.

For centuries, Mary Magdalene has been misidentified as an adulteress and repentant prostitute although nowhere does the New Testament identify her as such. Pope Gregory the Great made a speech in 591 AD where he combined the actions of three women mentioned in the New Testament and also identified and unnamed woman as Mary Magdalene. He stated she was a prostitute. This erroneous view was not corrected until 1969 when the Vatican issued a quiet retraction.

WAITING ON THE LORD

God wants to dwell with each of us personally, intimately—as the mysterious guests once visited Abraham's tent, as Jesus once entered the home of Mary and Martha.

By his hospitality in this week's First Reading, Abraham shows us how we are to welcome the Lord into our lives. His selfless service of his divine guests (see Hebrews 13:1) stands in contrast to the portrait of Martha drawn in this week's Gospel.

Where Abraham is concerned only for the well-being of his guests, Martha speaks only of herself—"Do you not care that my sister has left me by myself...Tell her to help me." Jesus' gentle rebuke reminds us that we risk missing the divine in the mundane, that we can fall into the trap of believing that God somehow needs to be served by human hands (see Acts 17:25).

Our Lord comes to us, not to be served but to serve (see Matthew 20:28). He gave His life that we might know the one thing we need, the "better part" which is life in the fellowship of God.

Jesus is the true Son promised today by Abraham's visitors (see Matthew 1:1). In Him, God has made an everlasting covenant for all time, made us blessed descendants of Abraham (see Genesis 17:19,21; Romans 4:16-17, 19-21). The Church now offers us this covenant, bringing to completion the word of God, the promise of His plan of salvation, what Paul calls "the mystery hidden for ages."

As once He came to Abraham, Mary and Martha, Christ now comes to each of us in Word and Sacrament. As we sing in this week's Psalm: He will make His dwelling with those who keep His Word and practice justice (see also John 14:23).

If we do these things we will not be anxious or disturbed, will not have our Lord taken from us. We will wait on the Lord, who told Abraham and tells each of us: "I will surely return to you." - Scott Hahn

HOW THE NUNS OF NEW YORK TAMED THE GANGS OF NEW YORK

A special exhibit at Our Lady of the Rosary Church tells the compelling story of how, in the late 1800's, the Sisters of Charity prevailed over growing violence in the destitute Irish immigrant neighborhoods of Lower Manhattan.

The exhibit will run until August 31.
