MISSION OF OUR PARISH

We are a Roman Catholic parish encompassing St Peter's Church, Our Lady of the Rosary Church (Seton Shrine) and St Joseph's Chapel. We are the first Catholic parish in New York State but our legacy in Lower Manhattan predates the American Revolution. The parish has served as a safe haven in the past for the needy immigrants and victims and rescue personnel in the wake of 9/11. St Elizabeth Ann Seton and Venerable Pierre Toussaint performed works of charity in the parish that inspire us to serve area residents and multitudes visiting from around the world.

CHILDREN OF THE PROMISE

In this Sunday's readings we hear the voice of the Prophet Zechariah as he delivers difficult oracles from God. The people have returned from exile. Now back in Jerusalem, they face the arduous work of rebuilding the Temple. Zechariah acknowledges their hardships and foresees more obstacles.

But their grief has a purpose. It is a remedy, a penance to heal them -- "a fountain to purify from sin and uncleanness."

Thus purified, the people will be ready to receive the Messiah and usher in a new creation. God promises to "pour out on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and petition." So that no one should mistake the identity of the Messiah when He comes, God says through Zechariah: "they shall look on him whom they have thrust through, and they shall mourn for him as one mourns for an only son ... a first-born." That prophecy could be fulfilled in no other than Jesus, the Word made Flesh, the Only-Begotten Son of God, the Crucified.

The day of the Messiah indeed came, with an outpouring of the Spirit. Yet it was a saving event not only for Jerusalem, but for all people. Both Jews and Gentiles could become "children of God," in St. Paul's stunning phrase. Now, "There is neither Jew nor Greek ... slave nor free ... male and female ... if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendant, heirs according to the promise."

In light of these readings, Sunday's Gospel is poignant. Jesus asks his closest friends, "who do you say that I am?" Peter replies, "The Messiah of God." Jesus then reveals to them, as Zechariah had foretold, that the Messiah must be "thrust through" and killed and mourned before the Spirit would come forth on Pentecost.

The day has indeed come. Yet still we long for its fullness, and so we pray to God in the Psalm: "for you I long! For you my body yearns; for you my soul thirsts, Like a land parched, lifeless, and without water." —Scott Hahn

POPE FRANCIS DECRIES ORLANDO MASSACRE AND PRAYS FOR VICTIMS

Vatican City, 13 June 2016 – The director of the Holy See Press Office, Fr. Federico Lombardi, S.J., issued the following declaration yesterday afternoon, following the attack in a nightclub in Orlando, U.S.A., which caused the death of 53 people and left more than 50 injured, some critically.

The terrible massacre that has taken place in Orlando, with its dreadfully high number of innocent victims, has caused in Pope Francis, and in all of us, the deepest feelings of horror and condemnation, of pain and turmoil before this new manifestation of homicidal folly and senseless hatred. Pope Francis joins the families of the victims and all of the injured in prayer and in compassion. Sharing in their indescribable suffering he entrusts them to the Lord so they may find comfort. We all hope that ways may be found, as soon as possible, to effectively identify and contrast the causes of such terrible and absurd violence which so deeply upsets the desire for peace of the American people and of the whole of humanity.

CHILD PROTECTION

The Archdiocese of New York is committed to doing all that it can to protect young children and young people from sexual abuse. As part of that effort, we periodically reach out to the Catholic community to advise them whom they may contact and what steps they can take if they have suffered abuse by someone representing the Catholic Church.

Anyone who needs to report an alleged incident of sexual abuse of a minor by a priest, deacon, religious, or lay person serving in the Archdiocese of New York is asked to contact Sr. Eileen Clifford, O.P. at 212-371-1000 x 2949 or Deacon George J. Coppola at 917-861-1762. Both may also be reached via e-mail at victimassistance@archny.org. Information can also be found on the archdiocesan website, www.archny.org. In keeping with the archdiocesan policy regarding sexual abuse of minors, this information is provided to ensure that our children remain safe and secure.

JOB OPENING

High School Principal:

Founded by the Daughters of Divine Charity, St. Joseph Hill Academy, an all-girls High School of approximately 400 students on Staten Island, is seeking a Principal to uphold its mission of preparing its students, academically and spiritually, to become confident young women ready to meet society's challenges. The ideal candidate will be a practicing Roman Catholic with prior relevant experience with school administration, fiscal and strategic planning, and will possess excellent communication skills necessary to interact with the Board of Trustees, faculty, the student body, and the Staten Island community. Candidates should hold a Master's Degree. Please send resumes and cover letters to sister-william@gmail.com

DAUGHTERS OF ST. PAUL BOOK FAIR

The Daughters of St. Paul, Catholic Sisters who are missioned in New York City at the Pauline Book & Media Center at 64 West 38th Street, will hold a book fair Sunday, June 26th after all the Masses at St. Peter's and after the 7:30pm Mass at St. Joseph's Chapel. The Sisters will have a selection of religious books, music CDs, and DVDs. The selection will include Bibles, lives of saints, prayer books, and reading materials for all ages. This will be a good opportunity to obtain spiritual materials for yourself and your family to deepen your knowledge of the Catholic faith. Tenemos libros y otros materiales en español. If you have any special requests, please call the Pauline Book & Media Center at 212-754-1110.

HOW THE NUNS OF NEW YORK TAMED THE GANGS OF NEW YORK

A special exhibit at Our Lady of the Rosary Church tells the compelling story of how, in the late 1800's, the Sisters of Charity prevailed over growing violence in the destitute Irish immigrant neighborhoods of Lower Manhattan.

The exhibit will run from April 16 until August 31. For exhibit hours, visit spcolr.org.

CAMP VERITAS 2016

Camp Veritas is a one-week play-and-pray sleep away summer camp for teens going into 7th to 12th grades. It will be held at three USA locations in 2016; July 24-30 at Mount Saint Mary College in Newburgh, NY, July 31-August 6th at Summit Lake Camp in Emmitsburg, MD and August 14-20 at Camp Lakota in Wurtsboro, NY. Enrollment opens January 1, 2016 and the enrollment price for each week is $400 per camper. More details and enrollment forms for campers and volunteers (18 and over) can be found at www.campveritas.com

HELP DO GOD'S WORK

Please help to do God's work in our parish and in our neighborhood. Consider donating your skill set for the needs of the parish. Many volunteer opportunities require minimal time commitment; others can be done on-line at home. Go to the parish website www.spcolr.org, and click on "Community" on the top right-hand side. Then click on "Volunteers" and fill in your contact information.

BAPTISM CLASS

The class for the parents and godparents of babies to be baptized is offered on the 1st Sunday of every month after the 9:30 am Mass at St. Peter's Church. Registration is required. Go to SPCOLR.ORG or call the Parish for more info: 212-233-8355. The next class will be offered Sunday, July 10, 2016.
